Dedication

To my father, who told us countless spooky stories while we slept on the terrace under the stars. His stories filled our childhood with laughter, wonder, and unforgettable memories. Today, those same stories continue to be enjoyed by our children and grandchildren.

They may be different...

BUT TOGETHER, THEY CAN DO ANYTHING!

MEET THE DWARF MONSTERS!

These funny (and not-so-clean) monsters
live deep in the jungle.
They love causing trouble... especially for boys!

SPOON MONSTER

He's the sniff expert!
If there's a smell,
he'll find it.
Always carries
his trusty spoon.

HUNGRY MONSTER

He's always hungry!
Cookies, bananas,
anything yummy...
he wants it
RIGHT NOW!

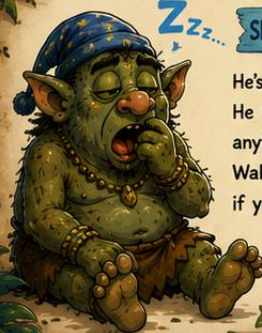

BOSS GRIZZLE

He's the boss.
He makes all
the rules.
Everyone is afraid of him... especially
the boys!

SLEEPY MONSTER

He's always tired.
He naps anywhere,
anytime.
Wake him up...
if you dare!

GOOFY MONSTER

He loves to make silly faces and bad jokes.
He thinks everything is hilarious!

TINY

He's the smallest,
but super brave!
Don't let his size
fool you.
He's fast and sneaky!

These monsters may be small,
but they cause BIG trouble!
Watch out... they are always on the hunt!

An illustration of two young boys, Rocket and Rascal, running happily on a paved path towards a brick school building. Rocket is on the left, wearing a white t-shirt and blue shorts, while Rascal is on the right, wearing a blue hoodie and grey pants. Both have backpacks. In the background, the school building is labeled 'FUNTOWN ELEMENTARY'. To the right, a wooden sign reads 'Welcome to FUN TOWN' with a red bicycle parked nearby. The scene is framed by trees and flowers.

SCENE 1

The Great Escape

"It all started with two terrible words..."

DO HOMEWORK!

Rocket was eight years old and very strong.
Rascal was six years old and very funny.
They were brothers.
They were best friends.
They lived in a place called Fun Town.
But to Rocket and Rascal, it was called Homework Town.

Why?

Because every afternoon,
two terrible words were waiting for them:

DO HOMEWORK!

One sunny afternoon,
Rocket threw his backpack
onto the floor.

THUMP!

"No more school!" he whispered.

"No more homework!" shouted Rascal.

"Let's run away to the jungle!"
said Rocket.

"Let's run away to the jungle!"
said Rocket.

"Yes!" yelled Rascal. "We'll live with monkeys!"

"And ride elephants!"

"And eat ice cream for breakfast!"

"And never do homework again!"

"EVER!" shouted Rascal.

One cookie.
One toy dinosaur.
And absolutely no plan.
But Rocket and Rascal didn't care.
They were eight and six.
They were brothers.
They were best friends.

And they were about
to do the bravest thing ever...
They were about to
run away!
To the jungle!
To live with monkeys!
And never do homework again!
